Stables – Sergeant Dalibor Krivoklatsky

I haven't been to the practises much, but no reports of any incidents. We had the tourney for rapier last week, and I've not heard anything to report from that, either.
My two requests for funding are in- an iron key helm- $60US plus s/h and duties, and a better box for said iron key- $100-$150.
Dalibor

James: Great turn-out at practices!

Archery – Her Ladyship Delwyn verch Ynyr

Jacqueline: I've been acting as deputy, and have been bringing out the equipment every week. I had seven people last week, and four are just starting to get into archery.

Acting Mistress of Blades – Lady Malie Rennick

Practices have been well attended. Phoenix tournament last week had 19+ fighters (!! ) from SCA, Blood & Iron and Academie Duello. Very pleased with the showing, and the quality of the combatants. Seamus won the cloak, and Kian was awarded the Chivalry Buckler. Hoping someone steps up to take the MoB position, as I will only be able to continue in an acting capacity due to mundane concerns. I am happy to do so until a replacement is found however.

Lists – Caitrin ni Cingeadh

Greetings to our preeminent, superlative new Seneschal and illustrious council, I am desirous to commence my tenure as Baronial List Mistress with a spectacular, inspirational and edifying overture but unfortunately I have nothing to report.

Furthermore I am despondent to convey that I am disinclined to be avaricious to volunteer for the other positions available.

Caitrin - who found a thesaurus next to the computer.

From the previous Lists mistress, her final report, which got missed last month:

Greetings,

This is my final report as Lists Mistress for the Barony of Lions Gate, with Mistress Caitrin scheduled to take over as of January Council.

There was no Lists activity in December, and no requests received for Lists coverage for upcoming events.

It has been a pleasure to serve the Barony as its Lists Mistress, and I thank Council for the opportunity.

Written this fifteenth day of January, AS XLV,
Dame Elena de Maisnilwarin, OP
Lists Mistress, Barony of Lions Gate

Chronicler – Lady Winifryd Euphemia Doiron

I completed the January Minutes, and the February North Wind, abet a tad late. I'm working towards a few pet projects – including business cards for Council members. Some sections I hope to start up in the North Wind soon, are identifying old heraldic shields from the box Caitrin has, and a “Blast from the Past” section highlighting things from achieved articles. I need to start scanning achieves, even if we can't publish them online, we should still have an electronic record.

Library – Her Ladyship Maeda no Kiko Mariko

No report.

Arts and Science – Lady Myrrim de Lancaster

Scriptorium

The scribal workshop continues to be held every 3rd Sunday at the usual site under the leadership of Aelana Cordovera. Students are working on designs for original charters and for a variety of uses including Lion's Fang and Lion's Claw.

It is hoped that the Bards will come up with some alternative wording for some of the new scrolls this weekend at Winter Defenders.

Anglo Saxon Day

A very successful day devoted to all things Anglo Saxon was held on Saturday, Feb. 20th. We were fortunate to have Mereigha and Aedla from Shitemwoode and Aelana Corodovera to come and host the discussions. A variety of topics were covered, and then participants enjoyed an Anglo Saxon lunch complete with spiced beer. The evening was spent in fellowship and watching an Anglo Saxon DVD, then all enjoyed a potluck dinner.

Our sincere thanks to Meresigha and Aedla for bringing their libraries and many Anglo Saxon artifacts for people to see.

In the planning Stages:

- 1) A pewter casting workshop, hopefully in May. Still awaiting Marc de Gaukler's replay on a date.
- 2) A Norse day similar to the Anglo Saxon Day.
- 3) Weaving demonstration and day long workshop.

Myrriam de Lancaster
